

Episcopal Peace Fellowship Colorado

Blessed are the Peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. (Matthew 5:9)

Please join the Colorado chapter of EPF as we endeavor to foster peace in ourselves, our families, our churches, our communities, our nation and our world.

You may agree with the EPF pledge:

For Christians working to establish God's kingdom here on earth, the violence which permeates our society demands a Christian response. Members of the Episcopal Peace fellowship seek a deliberate, Christian response to violence that is in keeping with our baptismal covenant to "... strive for justice and peace among all people. . . ."

-Excerpt from the EPF members' commitment pledge

About EPF

The Episcopal Peace Fellowship is a national organization with local chapters across the United States. While our chapter is affiliated with the Episcopal Church in America, we shape our own interests and priorities as we work for a peaceful and just world.

As individuals we ascribe to the following:

In loyalty to the person, teaching and Lordship of Jesus Christ, my conscience commits me to His way of redemptive love: to pray, study, and work for peace, and to renounce, so far as possible, participation in war, militarism, and all other forms of violence.

EPF Colorado events have included Good Friday pilgrimages for peace and justice in Denver, eco-justice programs, peacemaking trainings and a movie/discussion group that comes together on a regular basis.

We send out an email newsletter every other month to let members know about our events.

We are proud of our chapter and hope you will join us. Your $15 membership helps support our work.

Mankind must remember that peace is not God's gift to his creatures, peace is our gift to each other:

-Elie Wiesel, Nobel Peace Prize acceptance lecture, 1986
